

Mercy Housing

Resident Services Senior Program Model

Program Component program areas example: education	Subcomponents are subgroups which define more specifically the component ie. For education - youth development	Program/Service Coordination Activities what a program does... such as Service Coordination	Target Groups Individuals, groups, who use the program	Outputs (sub-data) Volume of program use expressed in numbers	Short-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result within a specific reporting period.	Long-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result over an extended period of time.	Measures Specific, observable, measurable data that tracks actual progress toward or achievement of an outcome
EDUCATION	Quality of Life Emphasis is on resident receiving information through activities	On site and community educational opportunities (Service coordination)®	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Total # of residents on site. # of seniors who maintain or increase participation in at least 2 QoL activities. # of different activities offered onsite	Residents increase variety of activities in which they participate Residents share skills and life knowledge with others	Residents are able to broaden quality of life beyond day-to-day survival (or beyond ADLs)	E.S.1.a % of residents who maintain or increase their participation in at least two different quality of life activities within reporting period
EDUCATION	Empowerment Emphasis is on linking to outside resources	I & R for Educational opportunities (empowerment focused service Coordination)®	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # of residents @ property # of residents who "ask" for support # of 1:1 sessions or referrals 	Residents have an increased understanding of empowerment-related topics Residents are more engaged—by attending workshops and taking action as a result Residents receive and use all available financial sources and entitlements	Residents see themselves as having an active role in their community Residents are able to advocate for themselves	E.S.2.a % of residents who are able to advocate for themselves.
HEALTH and WELLNESS	Health Awareness & Education Emphasis is helping residents to get information (educating residents for health)	I&R specific to Educational Health resources (service coordination)®	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # of seniors who maintain or increase their participation in Health Awareness & Educational activities. Total # of seniors on property ◆ # Health Awareness activities going on property. 	Participants have an understanding of key health-related topics Participants gain knowledge in rewards of healthy living habits (e.g., good nutrition and exercise)	Participants are active and healthy and lead better lives through education and awareness	H.S.1.a % of residents who maintain or increase their participation in health awareness & education activities

Program Component program areas example: education	Subcomponents are subgroups which define more specifically the component .ie.. For education - youth development	Sample Activities what a program does... such as parenting programs	Target Groups Individuals, groups, who use the program	Outputs (sub-data) Volume of program use expressed in numbers	Short-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result within a specific reporting period	Long-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result over an extended period of time.	Measures Specific, observable, measurable data that tracks actual progress toward or achievement of an outcome
--	---	---	---	---	---	---	---

HEALTH and WELLNESS	Preventative Care Management Emphasis is on helping resident to use health care knowledge; applied care management	I & R with emphasis on Applied Care Management and assisting residents to “age in place” (service coordination)®	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ # of residents accessing health related & community resources ◆ # of verified referrals given in regards to preventative care ◆ Total # of residents ◆ # of support service referrals ◆ # of residents at each level of support ◆ # of residents who moved to long term care facilities ◆ # of health related incidents ◆ # of seniors who receive reasonable accommodation 	Participants are able to access and receive care management as needed	Residents receive support to age in place and to be able to choose to stay living in their home (to avoid premature institutionalization)	H.S.2.a % of residents accessing health-related and community resources H.S.2.b % of at-risk residents who stayed in their home as a result of receiving support services
----------------------------	--	---	---------	--	--	--	---

Program Component program areas example: education	Subcomponents are subgroups which define more specifically the component .ie.. For education - youth development	Sample Activities what a program does... such as parenting programs	Target Groups Individuals, groups, who use the program	Outputs (sub-data) Volume of program use expressed in numbers	Short-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result within a specific reporting period	Long-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result over an extended period of time.	Measures Specific, observable, measurable data that tracks actual progress toward or achievement of an outcome
---	---	--	---	--	---	--	--

COMMUNITY	Community Involvement	Civic Celebration (annual) ® +Voter Registration +Voter Education	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # of voter education sessions held # who attended the Civic Celebration # who self-report that they registered to vote thru Mercy Housing efforts # who self-report that they voted 	Increased ability to initiate and implement community projects & classes Residents are more active in the civic community (through voting, political advocacy, etc.) Increase in property and neighborhood safety	Residents have an active role in the property and larger community	C.S.1.a % of residents who take a leadership role in on-site activities or classes C.S.1.c % of eligible residents who are registered to vote C.S.1.b % decrease in incidents or crimes on property
COMMUNITY	Recreation and Social	Community Social Events ®	Seniors	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> # of participants involved in community organizing events # of Voter ed & Voter Registration efforts # of verified referrals made to residents for community civic agencies # of incidents or crimes on property a month. 	Residents will participate in social and recreational activities Residents will be less isolated and more involved in community activities	Residents will enjoy each others company Residents will take pride in our community Residents will age in place as appropriate	C.S.2.a % of residents who report feeling more connected to their community

Program Component program areas example: education	Subcomponents are subgroups which define more specifically the component .ie.. For education - youth development	Sample Activities what a program does... such as parenting programs	Target Groups Individuals, groups, who use the program	Outputs (sub-data) Volume of program use expressed in numbers	Short-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result within a specific reporting period	Long-Term Outcomes Changes in attitudes, behaviors, knowledge, skills, status, or levels of functioning expected to result over an extended period of time.	Measures Specific, observable, measurable data that tracks actual progress toward or achievement of an outcome
---	---	--	---	--	---	--	--

